

Preface

As the Journal of Innovations in Pharmaceutical and Biological Sciences (JIPBS) enters its 10th year of publication in 2023, we are proud to reflect on our journey of dedication to disseminating high-quality research and reviews. Our commitment to publishing full-length and mini reviews, along with original research articles on the latest advancements in Pharmaceutical and Biological Sciences, has garnered widespread recognition from the scientific community.

Over the past decade, JIPBS has become a respected platform for researchers, scholars, and professionals who seek to share and discover cutting-edge knowledge. Our success is a testament to the unwavering support and contributions of many individuals and groups who have played pivotal roles in our growth and development.

We extend our deepest gratitude to our esteemed Associate Editors, Regional Editors, Section Editors, and Editorial Board members, whose expertise and guidance have been instrumental in maintaining the high standards of our journal. Their tireless efforts in reviewing and curating content ensure that JIPBS continues to publish impactful and relevant research.

We also acknowledge the invaluable contributions of our referees, whose rigorous peer reviews uphold the integrity and quality of the articles we publish. Their dedication to providing constructive feedback is crucial in enhancing the scientific value of our journal.

Looking ahead, we aspire for JIPBS to become an even more valuable tool for scientists engaged in Pharmaceutical and Biological Sciences. We are committed to fostering a collaborative and innovative environment that supports the dissemination of significant scientific discoveries. We are excited about the opportunities that lie ahead and look forward to continuing our journey with the same passion and dedication that has brought us this far.

Wishing you all a happy, productive, and successful 2023.

Sincerely,

Editor-in-Chief
