

Acknowledgement to Reviewers

The Editorial Board of the Journal of Innovations in Pharmaceutical and Biological Sciences (JIPBS) extends its heartfelt gratitude to the reviewers for their exceptional dedication and invaluable contributions to our journal throughout 2022. Your rigorous evaluations and constructive feedback are integral to maintaining the high standards and scientific integrity that JIPBS upholds.

The peer review process is the cornerstone of scholarly publishing, ensuring that each manuscript is meticulously assessed for quality, relevance, and scientific merit. Our reviewers' insightful critiques and recommendations not only elevate the quality of the published articles but also support authors in refining their research to its highest potential.

We are deeply appreciative of the time, effort, and expertise that our reviewers bring to the table. Your commitment to the peer review process demonstrates a profound dedication to advancing knowledge within the fields of Pharmaceutical and Biological Sciences. Your thorough and thoughtful reviews are crucial to the ongoing success and reputation of JIPBS as a leading scientific journal.

As we move into 2023, we acknowledge the pivotal role our reviewers play in our journal's growth and success. We are privileged to collaborate with such a distinguished group of professionals and scholars. Your dedication and hard work are deeply appreciated, and we look forward to continuing our collaboration in the years to come. Thank you once again for your unwavering support and commitment to excellence in scientific publishing.

Sincerely,

Editor-in-Chief
